I thought this was a very thoughtfully written, comprehensive book on the importance of and how to draft a quality resume. As I am in the process of switching jobs/careers, I'm finding that as I haven't had to deal with resume writing in almost a decade now, things have changed. It turns out that I was a lot more rusty than I even thought I was, so I'm glad that I picked up this book to learn about some of the new tips, tricks, do's and don'ts that I would have missed on my own. In a matter of hours I was able to gather all of the information I needed and come up with the perfect resume, which I've been sending out to companies, and I'm pleased to say that in less than 48 hours, I've already received two responses from potential employers! Highly recommended book!
