Customer Reviews

You will want to color every single stunning illustration in this book. I ordered a second one for the grandchildren, this one I am keeping for myself. The pictures inside are even better than the cover. This artist Marjorie Sarnat breathes new life into the art of Coloring, through the intricate interweaving of exotic cats with mesmerizing eyes that entrance you, and captivating, unparalleled combinations of patterns embellishing the backgrounds, scenery, borders, and even adorning the cats. Her art is brilliant in conception, skillfully and meticulously executed creating phenomenal artwork that will inspire you and take your creativity to new levels. This book is a perfect gift for school aged children and adults, colorists of all ages. 1. 31 illustrations printed one per page (the back of each page is blank) on bright white, heavy weight paper, perforated paper for easy removal of pages for framing or painting. 2. The paper is a joy to color on, Crayons, Colored pencils, Watercolor Pencils, Markers and Gel pens lay down smoothly and brightly. 3. Test youâ™re Gel Pens and Markers, if they leach through the paper, place a scrap sheet of paper under the page you are coloring on and leave it until the page is dry. OR remove the page from the book. 4. Author Marjorie Sarnat is co-founder and Director of Content Development of Jr Imagination, a publisher dedicated to growing the creative potential in children. 5.

Reviews are very important to me when choosing which coloring books to purchase. So I have decided to begin writing my own. The moment I opened this book, I was in love. The images are fun and whimsical - screaming to be filled with bright, vibrant colors. Yes, the face of the cat is identical throughout - some may be disappointed by this. I see the cat as a secondary element of the drawing. Each page is 'themed', (eg: travel, flowers, cuckoo clocks, writer, fairy, etc), The theme, to me, is the primary element of the image. As for the book itself, paper is not a concern to me, since I copy the pages so I can color them more than once using different implements. Gel pens, color pencils and fine tip markers are the most common implements I use. The paper is thicker than your average copy paper, but I would never color in the book without putting a protective sheet in between pages. Marker will bleed through - Sharpie would bleed the most, Crayola the least. The gel pens don't bleed through, but the color shows through the back (not sure if this will make sense to you - the reader). Most books you would not want the binding to break easily, but with coloring books, most people like the book to lay flat, whether for coloring or copying. This binding 'breaks' open very well. Allowing me to copy pages without removing them from the book. The pages are perforated!!! Coloring books loose at least 1/2 a star, in my opinion, for not having perforated pages. These are also one-sided pages, also important enough to loose 1/2 a star over. Overall, the images in this book are fun, with crisp lines (even the fine lines) and minimal white space. Perhaps not for the youngest of coloring enthusiasts, unless they are a little more advanced in their coloring skills.
