Customer Reviews

my friend Santiago from USA wants to start a new business but we didnt know how to start, Im from Costa Rica but he wanted to apply some USA things here. This was a good point to trigger our project, We totally agree about the terms of payments, staff and also advices to get everything organized. The food safety guidelines are super important to protect the food with good taste but be careful with the temperature too!

The best way to learn anything new is by asking lots of questions. That is what I did when I was faced with the task of helping a friend start a catering business. As she came to me for advice, I decided to do all I could for her and in my quest to learn everything I could about this stuff in a short span of time, downloaded this book. This is quite a handy book to get any newbie started with the business. It will help you plan for the challenges that you will face in this business and become a better thinker when it comes to catering. Nicely written, a useful guide!

Any kind of business requires certain knowledge and skills for a good start, catering business is one of the most profitable once it is run with a knowledgeable approach. Having this book I'm glad to get some knowledge and to see the unknown sides as few of my friends are into this business. It contains essential information on many aspects to keep this business on the safe side and get a profit. Learning even without performing is essential to me, as now I can be helpful to my friends if they need and definitely will recommend this book as one of the good and helpful sources on catering business.

I am a friend to the author of the book and was asked to leave an honest review and after reading through it I can honestly say it is a great book on Catering and provides very useful information on the process of running a successful catering business. It even outlines the amount of capital and where to rent premises to start selling. If you are aspiring to run your own successful catering business this book is highly recommended.
