Customer Reviews

I downloaded this in the hopes that it would help my resume, but alas all I found was common knowledge. There is nothing "up to date" about this book. To make matters worse here is a quote from the book, "Search the internet". The author literally tells you to search the internet to learn about resumes. Isn't the point of me buying this book so that it will teach me? Probably should have just searched the internet to begin with. Cheers

I used to have a boring and conventional-looking resume. I tried to find a better format online, but that didn't work for me. So I got this book and I'm happy that it turned out differently. This is really helpful especially to those who are seeking employment for the first time.

Very impressive guide! This book greatly delivered with information on the topic on resume writing. AJ gives great insight and also a lot of examples from good resume writing and best practice. If you're in the process of searching for a job, you certainly don't want to miss out on this one. It's truly worth recommending to all!

This book was exactly what I needed. It allowed me to write my resume to the best of my ability. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone. Even if you think you already know how to write a resume, this book makes it so easy to understand. Thank you!

This book is the worst book I've ever seen on resume writing!!! It consists of only 15 pages. This book is not up-to-date as it claims. It is flooded with typos. Please do not waste your money on this booklet. You are better off going to Barnes and Noble and purchasing a real resume writing guide. This booklet is total garbage.
